200 years Cannstatter Volksfest and the 100th Landwirtschaftliches Hauptfest

Stuttgart to celebrate a double anniversary in 2018 with a Historical Volksfest

STUTTGART – 200 years Cannstatter Volksfest and the 100th Landwirtschaftliches Hauptfest (an agricultural show) – the founding of the biggest festival in “Ländle”, as the state of Baden-Württemberg is affectionately known, by King Wilhelm I and his wife Katharina will be remembered in the heart of Stuttgart on the Schlossplatz square from 26 September to 3 October 2018. Visitors can look forward to a highly entertaining trip through the Volksfest’s history.

Jugglers, performing artists and fakirs will be vying for the public’s attention as will old traditional fairground attractions. In the historical festival tent, guests can raise their glasses to the double anniversary with a specially brewed beer for the occasion. Music and groups of people wearing traditional costumes will convey the cultural roots of the state to the Schlossplatz. Exhilaratingly conceived exhibitions and presentations make the history of the “Landwirtschaftlichen Festes zu Kannstadt”, as the Volksfest was originally called, come alive.
